Bach Vespers
at Holy Trinity

Bach Vespers at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in New York City invites you to join us for the 43rd Season of Bach cantata renderings on Sunday evenings, from late October through Easter! Established in 1968, Bach Vespers was the first series of its kind in the Western Hemisphere and is based on the great tradition Johann Sebastian followed in 18th century Leipzig. It has been named "A Cultural Landmark" by the New York Landmarks Conservancy and noted for its "valuable" contribution to the city's arts community.

Our Bach Choir, Soloists and Bach Players (on Baroque period instruments) are comprised of outstanding professional musicians from the New York region and are directed by Cantor Rick Erickson.

Bach Vespers is free and open to all regardless of religious affiliation or beliefs. We do request a free-will offering during the service. Fourth Mondays Concerts have a $15/$10 admission at the door and offer a diverse musical presentation beyond our regular cantata series.

Holy Trinity is located on Central Park West at 65th Street in Manhattan. Subways: #1 to 66 St/Lincoln Center Stop or A,B,C,D to Columbus Circle.

We are very grateful for and depend on the gifts of our patrons to sustain this program. Please consider supporting Bach Vespers, being assured that all gifts go directly to this series at Holy Trinity. We are a not-for-profit organization, and all donations are fully tax deductible.

You are welcome to attend all other services and events at Holy Trinity Lutheran as well, each rich in musical expression. More info at: www.holytrinitynyc.org
