Dr. Daniel G. Reuning, Artistic Director
2006 – 2007 Season

www.bachcollegium.org

s artistic director, on behalf of the Board of Directors, it gives me great pleasure to introduce you to our Fifth Anniversary Season.

Come and Hear

Fort Wayne's Premier Bach Ensemble

A member of Arts United, a not-for-profit community organization. We perform Bach, his contemporaries, predecessors from whom he learned, and successors who were influenced by him with historically informed practices using:

- a chamber chorus of 30 disciplined, experienced singers
- a chamber orchestra that uses Baroque period instruments

in the Baroque articulate buoyant style

- always inviting and transparent
- at times warm and delicate and at others vigorous and electrifying

Since our beginning five years ago, we have presented quality performances of monumental works by J. S. Bach, such as the Mass in B minor, the St. John Passion, the Magnificat in D Major, the St. Matthew Passion, the Christmas Oratorio, as well as J. Brahms' A German Requiem.

We are pleased this fifth season to repeat J. S. Bach's Mass in B minor, and to present also his Cantata BWV 23 and Coffee Cantata BWV 211. Performed for the first time will be A. Scandellus' St. John Passion (a Renaissance Passion), F. Mendelssohn-Bartholdy's St. Paul Oratorio, and works by Duruflé, Poulenc, Messiaen, and Cashner.

Come and hear the Collegium's extraordinary blend of beautiful singing and fine instrumental playing. You will be uplifted, inspired, and moved by expressions of life's highest ideals, and will be sensitized more deeply to the needs and well being of others. Welcome to the season!

Dr. Daniel G. Reuning, Artistic Director

ARTS

Supporting the Bach Collegium

our support of Fort Wayne's premier Bach choir and instrumental ensemble will enable it to fulfill its ongoing mission: "to educate and enrich the community culturally, emotionally, and spiritually through performances and lectures presented by trained musicians and scholars, focusing primarily on the music of J. S. Bach and the Baroque era, but including also works from other periods."

During this Fifth Anniversary Season, please consider supporting the Bach Collegium by purchasing Advertisement space for an ad in both or either of our two major concert programs. For a full page two-program ad, you will receive 2 complimentary tickets to both the 28 January Mass in B minor & 6 May St. Paul Oratorio concerts.
