

The Tenth Grace Church Bach Festival

Friday, June 27, 2003 at 7:30 P.M.

Thomas Marshall, Organ

The Organ Concertos of Johann Sebastian Bach (Complete)
Mr. Marshall recently released a CD "The Organ Concertos of Bach" on the Fleur de Lis Recording label. He is a member of the Artist Faculty of William and Mary College in Williamsburg, Virginia and is Organist at the historic Williamsburg Presbyterian Church.

Sunday, June 29, 2003 at 3:00 P.M.

Washington Friends of the Baroque
Colin St. Martin, Baroque Flute
Erin Sammon, Baroque Violin
Sarah Wetherbee, Baroque Violin
Nancy Snider, Baroque Cello
Sharon Ollison, Harpsichord

Works include the Italian Concerto, BWV 971 and the G Major Trio Sonata, the Double Violin Concerto in D, and the Flute Partita in A.

Sunday, July 6, 2003 at 3:00 P.M.

Arco Voce
Rosa Lamoreaux, Soprano
Nina Falk, Violin
Steven Silverman, Harpsichord
John Moran, Guest Cellist

Works include arias from Cantatas and the Sonata for Violin Obligato and Harpsichord in C minor.

Tuesday, July 8, 2003 at 7:30 P.M.

Francine Maté, Organist and Director of the Bach Festival
Lois Johnson, Soprano
Mary Ann Ruehling, Oboe
Deborah Edge, Contrabass

Works include selections from Clavierübung, Dritter Theil, Ich will dir mein Herze from the St. Matthew Passion, and selected movements from Cantatas including Wir Eilen Mit Schwachen from Cantata No. 78.

Grace Church

1041 Wisconsin Avenue, NW in Georgetown (below M Street, near the C&O Canal)

The Georgetown Metro Connection (blue bus) runs every 10 minutes from the Foggy Bottom, Rosslyn and Dupont Circle Metro Stations. Exit the bus at Wisconsin and M Street.

Admission

While there is no set admission price, donations are accepted ($10 suggested). There is no reserved seating. The church will open for seating forty-five minutes before the announced start time of the concerts.

Parking & Information

Please call the concert line at (202) 333-7100 or visit Grace's website: <http://www.gracedc.org> for parking and general information.