

Cantores Minores

X Helsinki Bach Week Oct. 29th - Nov. 5th 2010

Cantores Minores, the Choir of Boys and Young Men of Helsinki Cathedral, arranges the Helsinki Bach Week for the tenth time. The five-yearly repeated Bach festival was initiated in 1965 by the choir's then conductor prof. Heinz Hofmann. Among many soloists, the following performers have since been invited to the Helsinki Bach Weeks: The Weimar Music Academy Orchestra, Collegium Instrumentale Halle, the Cappella Sagittariana Dresden, the Thomanerchor Leipzig, the Rottweiler Münstersängerknaben, the Kreuzchor Dresden, the Finnish Radio Symphony Orchestra, the Helsinki Philharmonic Orchestra, the Ostrobothnian Chamber Orchestra.

In the X Helsinki Bach Week there will be many renowned finnish artists like the Tapiola Chamber Choir, Tapiola Sinfonietta, Helsinki Baroque Orchestra, opera singers Anna-Kristiina Kaappola, Helena Juntunen and Tuomas Pursio, hapsicordist Anna-Maaria Oramo and organists Tapio Tiitu and Kalevi Kiviniemi. Among finnish artists there will be also guests from Estonia performing music by Estonian composer Urmass Sisask and J.S. Bach: the boys' choirs from the Church of St. Michael (Tallinn) and Tartu, Collegium Consonante, countertenor/baritone Taaniel Kirikal and conductor Lehari Kaustel.
